

REDUCTION OF POVERTY THROUGH AGRO-ECOLOGICAL PRACTICES

Assumptions:

- 1 Assumption 1: women want to and have the authorisation by their husband to participate project activities
- 2 Assumption 2: No significant changes to international, national or local NTFP markets
- 3 Assumption 3: Cashew farmers are willing to give access to land to women and youth
- 4 Assumption 4: The project is able to effectively engage the cashew farmers in SLM who are willing to apply the practices
- 5 Assumption 5: No major droughts or floods which will negatively affect tree survival
- 6 Assumption 6: The cashew farmers, youth and women work together effectively within the cooperative union and the enterprises
- 7 Assumption 7: Women have time to participate in the project activities